

Common Elements Approach

for the Child and Family Support System

Evidence-informed Practice Techniques

Building CFSS workforce capacity to form positive and productive relationships with families in ways that support trauma responsive practice, safety and family functioning.

Training and Coaching Support

Enabled within a robust reflective practice model to embed evidence-based, trauma informed skills consciously and consistently into practice.

Implementation Science

Acknowledging local context and drawing on existing practitioner expertise to effectively translate evidence to practice.

