Vision:
Providing young people in the youth justice system and their families with connected supports, programs and services.

Young people’s wellbeing
Young people’s safety and wellbeing is at the heart of our services.

Workforce stability and investment
We equip our people to understand and support young people, their needs, networks and culture.

Connected services
We provide holistic, flexible and connected services to achieve positive lived experiences and lasting outcomes for children and young people, families and communities.

Aboriginal cultural connection
We will ensure the voices of Aboriginal communities inform and promote strong connection to family, communities, culture, country and language.

Reconnection with community
We are clear on our role in supporting children and young people to connect to community, while maintaining community safety and acknowledging the impact on victims of crime.

Business intelligence
We are committed to improvement in the collection, sharing and analysis of data for decision making and research.
